

STEADY MEN 16:13

A daily walk in the Word. Honest brotherhood. Steady growth.

WHAT THIS SUMMER IS ABOUT

A simple, steady rhythm: 10-15 minutes in God's Word each day, honest encouragement through WhatsApp discussion group, prayer and accountability with other men, and gatherings that keep us growing together.

ROOTED IN THE WORD

JULY 12 - SEPTEMBER 5, 2026

STEADY MEN 16:13

WHAT STEADY MEN IS ABOUT

An invitation to grow in God's Word, with other men, over the summer.

THE VISION

This is for men at different places who are willing to pursue God honestly, make a real effort, ask for help when needed, and stay engaged with the other men in the group. It is not about having all the answers or pretending to have it together.

WHAT THIS IS - AND WHAT IT IS NOT

This is a group for men who want to become more faithful husbands, fathers, leaders, friends, and men of God. It is built around being in the Word daily, learning from it, and letting it shape real life.

This is not a place to judge, shame, or perform. Men may be working through marriage, fatherhood, lust, anger, work, prayer, or other personal struggles. The purpose is support and accountability that builds men up and helps them keep walking with Christ. None of us will do this perfectly. Life will get busy. Work schedules, family responsibilities, sickness, travel, and unexpected situations will happen. Missing a day does not mean you have failed. Jump back in wherever you are, and get re-engaged.

We will pursue one another, ask honest questions, and refuse to let each other quietly disappear. We will keep each other accountable to being active, engaged, and part of the group, not to shame anyone, but because growth happens when men are known, supported, and challenged.

"And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another."

— Hebrews 10:24-25

When you are struggling, reach out. Share in the WhatsApp group, ask for prayer, or start a conversation. Do not quietly disappear. We will encourage one another, challenge one another with grace, and keep moving forward together.

THE DAILY COMMITMENT

The plan is intentionally built around 10-15 minutes a day. Everyone can make room for this: over lunch on a phone, early in the morning, or before bed. The goal is not to rush or impress anyone; it is to make time for God's Word and keep showing up.

Missed a few days? Do not get discouraged or disappear. Just jump back in with the current day and keep going.

STEADY MEN 16:13

HOW WE STAY CONNECTED

Daily Scripture. Simple check-ins. Real brotherhood. In-person gatherings.

DAILY WHATSAPP RHYTHM

Each day, read the assigned passage and Reading Note. A simple checkmark, “done,” or reaction in WhatsApp means you completed the reading.

Sharing something that stood out, challenged you, encouraged you, or raised a question is strongly encouraged. It gives the group real material for conversation and helps us learn from one another.

Pray for other men in the group. Reach out when someone shares a need or when you sense a brother may need encouragement. Accountability stays open and organic this summer - men looking out for men.

Steady Men Nights:

Every two weeks, we will gather at my house for a Steady Men Study Night. These nights are meant to be more than simply working through questions. They are a chance to eat together, spend time around a campfire or outdoors, when possible, build community, and talk honestly about what God has been showing us through the previous two weeks of reading.

A short Study Guide will be sent in WhatsApp a few days before each Study Night. It will include a few questions and thoughts to help us reflect on the readings and encourage meaningful conversation. We may not get through every question, and the conversation may go in a different direction at times. The guide is there to help get us thinking, not to make the night feel rigid or like homework.

Each Study Night will be shaped by what we have read together, with room for discussion, prayer, encouragement, accountability, and simply doing life alongside other men.

ROOTED IN THE WORD

SUMMER READING PLAN

July 12 - September 5, 2026 | Readings and notes are based on the CSB.

WHY DAILY SCRIPTURE MATTERS

Being in God's Word roots us in Christ and helps us become steady rather than being shaped mainly by whatever is loudest around us (Colossians 2:6-7; Psalm 1:1-3). It gives brotherhood real substance, because men can only sharpen one another well when they are being sharpened by God's truth (Proverbs 27:17). Scripture also shows where we need to grow and equips us for every good work at home, work, church, and in the struggles we face (2 Timothy 3:16-17 – is a key passage for understanding the importance of Scripture).

HOW TO USE THIS PLAN

Read the passage. Read the short Reading Note. Sit with what the text is saying before moving on. Use Sundays to catch up, reflect, pray, or rest. The goal is steady time with God, not getting through material as fast as possible.

SUMMER MEMORY PASSAGES

We will work on Psalm 1:1-3 together.

This memory work will not be tested at any point, but it is encouraged to try and memorize these, or other, scriptures of your choice. As it says in Psalm 119:11 "I have treasured your word in my heart so that I may not sin against you." Or Joshua 1:8 "meditate on God's Word day and night so you can live faithfully". This is meant for us to start to put God's word into our lives and encourage us as we live and show our families, friends, and the world who we are, and what we believe.

ROOTED IN CHRIST

JULY 12-18 | Seeing Jesus clearly: His identity, truth, obedience, and invitation to follow Him.

WEEK 1 BEGINS A NEW TWO-WEEK THEME.

Sunday July 12	John 1:1-18 Reading Note: John opens by showing that Jesus is the eternal Word who was with God and is God. He is not merely a teacher or example; He is the source of life and light. A God-centered man starts by seeing Jesus for who He truly is.
Monday July 13	John 1:19-51 Reading Note: Jesus calls ordinary men to follow Him and begins to reveal who He is. The first disciples do not have everything figured out; they respond to His invitation and bring others with them. Steady growth begins with following Jesus and helping other men see Him more clearly.
Tuesday July 14	John 2 Reading Note: Jesus shows His authority over celebration, worship, and the temple. He brings joy, but He also refuses to let worship become hollow or self-serving. Following Him means letting Him shape both the ordinary parts of life and the places where our hearts have drifted.
Wednesday July 15	John 3:1-21 Reading Note: Jesus tells Nicodemus that a religious life is not enough; we must be made new by the Spirit. This passage brings us back to the gospel: we are not earning a place with God, but receiving new life through faith in Christ.
Thursday July 16	John 3:22-36 Reading Note: John the Baptist gives a clear picture of humility: Jesus must increase, and we must decrease. A steady man does not build his life around being noticed, right, or important. He gladly makes more of Christ.
Friday July 17	John 4:1-26 Reading Note: Jesus meets a woman with a complicated story and offers living water that truly satisfies. He sees people fully without turning away from them. Real change begins when we bring our thirst, shame, and need to Christ rather than trying to satisfy them elsewhere.
Saturday July 18	John 4:27-54 Reading Note: The woman at the well becomes a witness, and Jesus calls His disciples to see the spiritual needs around them. Faith is not meant to stay private. Men who are being changed by Jesus learn to notice, serve, and speak about what He has done.

ROOTED IN CHRIST

JULY 19-25 | Seeing Jesus clearly: His authority, compassion, courage, and call to trust.

Sunday July 19	OPEN SUNDAY Catch up, reflect, pray, or rest. Do not stress about missed days - jump back in with the current reading and keep going.
Monday July 20	John 5 Reading Note: Jesus heals, speaks with the authority of the Father, and calls people to honor Him. The issue is not whether we admire Jesus, but whether we trust and obey Him. Our faith becomes steady when His voice carries more weight than our fears or preferences.
Tuesday July 21	John 6:1-29 Reading Note: Jesus provides for a crowd and then challenges people who only want Him for what He can give. He is not a tool for a more comfortable life. He is the One we need, and faith means trusting Him even when we do not yet see the whole plan.
Wednesday July 22	John 6:30-71 Reading Note: Jesus calls Himself the bread of life, and many people walk away because His words are hard. Peter stays because he recognizes that Jesus alone has the words of eternal life. A steady man keeps coming back to Christ when obedience is costly or confusing.
Thursday July 23	John 7 Reading Note: Jesus teaches openly despite opposition and invites the thirsty to come to Him. He does not chase approval or move according to pressure. He follows the Father's timing and speaks the truth with courage.
Friday July 24	John 8 Reading Note: Jesus confronts sin without abandoning people, exposes false confidence, and declares Himself the light of the world. Freedom comes from remaining in His word, not from doing whatever we feel. This is a strong passage for guarding our minds and homes with truth. MEN'S GATHERING TONIGHT - 9:00 PM 693 Line 3, NOTL
Saturday July 25	John 9-10 Reading Note: Jesus gives sight to a man born blind and describes Himself as the Good Shepherd. He knows His sheep, leads them, and lays down His life for them. Men are called to listen for Christ's voice and lead others by serving, protecting, and pointing them to Him.

FAITHFUL IN DAILY LIFE

JULY 26 - AUGUST 1 | Jesus shows us humble service, prayerful dependence, love, and courage under pressure.

WEEK 3 BEGINS A NEW TWO-WEEK THEME.

Sunday July 26	OPEN SUNDAY Catch up, reflect, pray, or rest. Do not stress about missed days - jump back in with the current reading and keep going.
Monday July 27	John 11 Reading Note: Jesus enters grief, weeps with those who mourn, and shows power over death. He is neither distant nor overwhelmed by suffering. Following Him includes being present with people in hard moments and trusting that death does not have the final word.
Tuesday July 28	John 12 Reading Note: Jesus speaks about a life that bears fruit by following Him rather than seeking self-protection or human praise. He also models a heart fixed on the Father's glory. A faithful man learns to put obedience above image and comfort.
Wednesday July 29	John 13:1-20 Reading Note: Jesus washes His disciples' feet and gives them an example of humble service. Biblical leadership is not about being above others; it is about using strength and responsibility for their good. This matters at home, at work, and in the church.
Thursday July 30	John 13:21-38 Reading Note: Jesus remains steady while betrayal and failure surround Him. He gives His followers a new command: love one another as He has loved them. Real brotherhood is built on that kind of committed, Christ-shaped love, not convenience.
Friday July 31	John 14 Reading Note: Jesus tells troubled disciples not to let their hearts be afraid because He is the way, the truth, and the life. He promises the Holy Spirit to help them obey and remember His words. Men do not have to carry faithfulness alone; Christ has given His presence and help.
Saturday August 1	John 15 Reading Note: Jesus calls His disciples to abide in Him because fruitfulness comes from remaining connected to Him. This is the heart of daily time in the Word: not checking a box, but staying close to the source of life. Psalm 1 uses a similar picture of a tree rooted near water.

FAITHFUL IN DAILY LIFE

AUGUST 2-8 | Jesus finishes His work with prayer, sacrifice, resurrection hope, and a clear mission for His people.

Sunday August 2	OPEN SUNDAY Catch up, reflect, pray, or rest. Do not stress about missed days - jump back in with the current reading and keep going.
Monday August 3	John 16 Reading Note: Jesus prepares His disciples for trouble without leaving them hopeless. He promises the Spirit, tells them to pray in His name, and says that in Him they can have peace. A steady man does not deny hardship; he learns to face it with Christ.
Tuesday August 4	John 17 Reading Note: Jesus prays for His disciples and for those who will believe through their message. His prayer centers on knowing God, being kept from evil, growing in truth, and living in unity. Prayer is not an extra part of Christian life; it is part of how we stand and care for one another.
Wednesday August 5	John 18 Reading Note: Jesus faces arrest and injustice without panic, manipulation, or compromise. Peter's denial reminds us that confidence in ourselves is fragile. Jesus remains faithful where we fail, which gives us both humility and hope.
Thursday August 6	John 19 Reading Note: Jesus goes to the cross willingly and finishes the work the Father gave Him. His love is sacrificial, costly, and purposeful. Husbands, fathers, single men, and brothers alike are called to let Christ redefine strength through obedience and self-giving love.
Friday August 7	John 20 Reading Note: The risen Jesus meets fearful disciples with peace, restores purpose, and sends them into the world. The resurrection changes what is possible: sin, fear, and failure do not get the final word. We follow a living Savior. MEN'S GATHERING TONIGHT - 9:00 PM 693 Line 3, NOTL
Saturday August 8	John 21 Reading Note: Jesus restores Peter after failure and calls him to love Him and care for His people. The question is not whether we have failed, but whether we will return to Jesus and follow Him again. His grace restores men for faithful service.

BROTHERHOOD & ACCOUNTABILITY

AUGUST 9-15 | Practical faith that shows up in trials, speech, humility, wisdom, and how we treat one another.

WEEK 5 BEGINS A NEW TWO-WEEK THEME.

Sunday August 9	OPEN SUNDAY Catch up, reflect, pray, or rest. Do not stress about missed days - jump back in with the current reading and keep going.
Monday August 10	James 1:1-18 Reading Note: James begins with trials, wisdom, and the danger of being pulled away by our own desires. He does not say hardship is easy, but that God can use it to produce endurance. Ask God for wisdom honestly and keep bringing your struggles into the light.
Tuesday August 11	James 1:19-27 Reading Note: James calls believers to be quick to listen, slow to speak, slow to anger, and doers of the word. Daily Scripture matters because it should shape how we speak, respond, and care for people. Hearing truth without living it leaves us unchanged.
Wednesday August 12	James 2:1-13 Reading Note: James confronts favoritism and reminds believers that mercy is central to a life shaped by God. Brotherhood is not a place for comparison, status, or treating some men as more important than others. We build one another up because Christ has shown us mercy.
Thursday August 13	James 2:14-26 Reading Note: James shows that genuine faith produces visible action. We are not saved by works, but faith that never affects how we live is empty. Steady men take responsibility and let their trust in Christ show up in practical obedience.
Friday August 14	James 3:1-12 Reading Note: James takes our words seriously because the tongue can direct, damage, or bless. A man can be strong in many areas and still wound people through careless speech. Ask where your words need more truth, patience, and self-control.
Saturday August 15	James 3:13-18 Reading Note: Godly wisdom is humble, peaceable, gentle, and full of mercy. This is not weak leadership; it is strength under control. Homes, workplaces, and friendships are changed when men choose wisdom from above instead of jealousy, pride, or anger.

BROTHERHOOD & ACCOUNTABILITY

AUGUST 16-22 | Responsibility with grace: prayer, restoration, work, and bearing one another's burdens.

Sunday August 16	OPEN SUNDAY Catch up, reflect, pray, or rest. Do not stress about missed days - jump back in with the current reading and keep going.
Monday August 17	James 4:1-12 Reading Note: James traces conflict back to desires that are ruling the heart and calls us to submit to God. Accountability starts with humility: we bring our own pride, anger, and temptation before the Lord instead of only seeing what is wrong in others.
Tuesday August 18	James 4:13-17 Reading Note: James speaks to planning, work, and the illusion of control. It is good to work and plan, but our confidence rests in God's will, not our schedules. Quiet faithfulness includes doing the good we know to do today.
Wednesday August 19	James 5:1-12 Reading Note: James warns against trusting wealth, comfort, or control and calls believers to patient endurance. He points to the farmer who works faithfully while waiting for what he cannot force. Men need patience in work, family life, and the long process of spiritual growth.
Thursday August 20	James 5:13-20 Reading Note: James closes with prayer, confession, restoration, and bringing wandering people back. This is a key picture for Steady Men: men who pray for one another, speak honestly, and help each other return when someone drifts.
Friday August 21	Galatians 6:1-10 Reading Note: This is one of our memory passages because it holds grace and responsibility together. We restore a brother gently, carry burdens, examine our own lives, and do not grow weary in doing good. Accountability is meant to help men walk forward, not to shame them. MEN'S GATHERING TONIGHT - 9:00 PM 693 Line 3, NOTL
Saturday August 22	Ecclesiastes 4:9-12; Proverbs 27:5-17 Reading Note: These passages show why men need one another. Honest correction is better than hidden love, and friends sharpen friends through truth and presence. Brotherhood becomes meaningful when we know God's Word well enough to encourage and challenge one another with it.

ENDURANCE & FINISHING WELL

AUGUST 23-29 | Living with holiness, responsibility, faithfulness at home, and a steady witness before others.

WEEK 7 BEGINS A NEW TWO-WEEK THEME.

Sunday August 23	OPEN SUNDAY Catch up, reflect, pray, or rest. Do not stress about missed days - jump back in with the current reading and keep going.
Monday August 24	1 Thessalonians 4:1-12 Reading Note: Paul calls believers to grow in holiness, love one another, live quietly, and work faithfully. This is our second memory passage because it describes steady Christian life without spotlight or hype. Godly men pursue purity, responsibility, and a good witness in everyday life.
Tuesday August 25	1 Thessalonians 4:13-5:11 Reading Note: Paul connects future hope with present alertness and encouragement. Because Christ will return, we do not drift or live carelessly. We encourage one another, stay awake spiritually, and put on faith, love, and hope.
Wednesday August 26	Ephesians 5:15-33 Reading Note: Paul calls believers to walk wisely, be filled with the Spirit, and live in mutual submission. For husbands, Christ's sacrificial love is the model - not control or passivity. For single men, this passage forms the kind of character and love that should shape every relationship.
Thursday August 27	Ephesians 6:1-4 Reading Note: Fatherhood is not merely providing rules or resources; it is bringing children up in the instruction and discipline of the Lord. Presence, patience, example, prayer, and correction all matter. Men without children can still learn the kind of steady leadership younger people need around them.
Friday August 28	Colossians 3:12-25 Reading Note: Paul describes what life in Christ looks like inside real relationships: compassion, humility, forgiveness, love, and doing everything in Jesus' name. The home is one of the clearest places where our faith becomes visible. Let Christ's peace and word shape the atmosphere you bring into it.
Saturday August 29	1 Peter 3:1-12 Reading Note: Peter calls husbands to honor their wives and live with understanding, while all believers are called to unity, compassion, humility, and blessing. Marriage is not a place to demand our own way; it is a place to practice Christlike honor and sacrificial love. Prayer and how we treat one another are connected.

ENDURANCE & FINISHING WELL

AUGUST 30 - SEPTEMBER 5 | Finishing the summer with purity, Spirit-led living, love, perseverance, and a long view of faithfulness.

Sunday August 30	OPEN SUNDAY Catch up, reflect, pray, or rest. Do not stress about missed days - jump back in with the current reading and keep going.
Monday August 31	1 Corinthians 6:12-20 Reading Note: Paul teaches that Christian freedom is not permission to be mastered by anything. Our bodies belong to the Lord, which gives a serious and hopeful foundation for sexual integrity. Lust loses power when it is brought into the light and replaced by deeper worship, honesty, and obedience.
Tuesday September 1	Galatians 5:16-26 Reading Note: Paul contrasts the desires of the flesh with life led by the Spirit. The answer to temptation is not merely trying harder; it is walking by the Spirit day by day. The fruit God produces includes self-control, faithfulness, gentleness, and love.
Wednesday September 2	Hebrews 12:1-3 Reading Note: The Christian life is described as a race that requires endurance, laying aside sin, and fixing our eyes on Jesus. We do not run by staring at our failures or comparing ourselves to others. We keep looking to Christ, who endured for us and strengthens us not to grow weary.
Thursday September 3	Romans 12:9-21 Reading Note: Paul gives a practical picture of sincere Christian love: honor, hospitality, patience in suffering, prayer, humility, and refusing revenge. This is a strong summary of the kind of men we want to become. We overcome evil not by becoming harsh, but by doing good in the strength of Christ.
Friday September 4	1 Timothy 4:6-16 Reading Note: Paul tells Timothy to train for godliness and set an example in speech, conduct, love, faith, and purity. Growth is not accidental; it comes through steady attention to God's truth and faithful practice. Keep going, and let the progress be visible over time. MEN'S GATHERING TONIGHT - 9:00 PM 693 Line 3, NOTL
Saturday September 5	2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18 Reading Note: Paul looks back on a life of faithfulness and forward to the Lord's final rescue. Finishing well is not about having an easy story or a perfect record. It is about continuing to trust Christ, fight the good fight, and keep the faith through every season.

ROOTED IN THE WORD

SUMMER MEMORY PASSAGES

The passage to carry through the summer:

Psalm 1:1-3 (CSB)

'How happy is the one who does not walk in the advice of the wicked or stand in the pathway with sinners or sit in the company of mockers! Instead, his delight is in the Lord's instruction, and he meditates on it day and night. He is like a tree planted beside flowing streams that bears its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither. Whatever he does prospers. '
